

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET

Forum för Afrikastudier

FRIDAY RESEARCH SEMINARS IN AFRICA STUDIES
FREDAGSFORSK I AFRIKASTUDIER

House 3, room 2- 2028, Engelska Parken – kl. 10.15-11.30

March 9th

The roles of built environments in the urban pasts of sub-Saharan Africa

Monika Baumanova (Department of Archaeology and Ancient History, Uppsala; Centre for African Studies, University of Basel, Switzerland)

March 23rd

Witchcraft in Europe and Africa: How useful is a comparative perspective?

Nikolas Århem (Department of Cultural Anthropology and Ethnology, Uppsala)

April 6th

'Institutional gaps'. A qualitative study on attitudes and perception on vacuum extraction in Dar es Salaam, Tanzania

Henrik Makokha-Sandell (International Maternal and Child Health, Uppsala)

April 27th

Let my People Go! Kwame Nkrumah's Rhetoric of Resistance in the Motion of Independence in the Gold Coast

Eric Opoku Mensah (College of Humanities & Legal Studies, University of Cape Coast)

May 25th

The relevance of research – or is another policy report what Africa needs?

Terje Oestigaard (Nordiska Afrikainstitutet, Uppsala)

June 1st

Contemporary African Texts and Contexts: Decolonising the archive, genre and method

Lynda Gichanda Spencer (Rhodes University, South Africa)

June 8th

South African researcher Charlene van der Walt visits Uppsala as part of the Forum for Africa Studies' project "Health, Politics and Culture".

