

CSD-CEFO/NRHU Sustainability Seminar in collaboration with Forum for Africa Studies at the Department of Cultural Anthropology and Ethnology and the Swedish Network in the History of Education at the Department of Education, Uppsala University

September 29, 2015, at 10.15-12.00, CSD Uppsala, Villavägen 16

The Liberation Struggle in Guinea-Bissau: between educational practice and experiences

Presenter: Sónia Vaz Borges

Dear all,

Here comes the invitation to the third meeting this autumn of our integrated CSD-CEFO/NRHU Sustainability Seminar.

We are happy to be organizing this event in collaboration with two important partners: Forum for Africa Studies at the Department of Cultural Anthropology and Ethnology and the Swedish Network in the History of Education at the Department of Education, both at Uppsala University.

We meet on Tuesday, September 29, 2015, at 10.15-12.00, as usually in the Baltic Library at CSD (Centre for Sustainable Development), Geocentrum, Villavägen 16.

Participants in the seminar are cordially invited to lunch afterwards. Those who would like to join us for lunch, please notify in advance, at the latest Monday, Sept 28, 11 am: Lars.Rudebeck@csduppsala.uu.se

Presenter: Sónia Vaz Borges, MA in African History at the University of Lisbon; PhD Candidate, Institute for Education, Humboldt University, Berlin. Sónia is also the author of a recent book on life in immigrant neighbourhoods in Lisbon: Na Pó di Spéra (In the dust of hope), Principia, Lisbon, 2014.

Title of Presentation: The Liberation Struggle in Guinea-Bissau: between educational practice and experiences

An abstract can be found at: www.csduppsala.uu.se/cefo

No discussant has been specifically appointed. But we count on all committed participants to join the discussion.

The seminar will be chaired by Lars Rudebeck, who has many-decades-long research connections with Guinea-Bissau.

Most welcome!

Lars Rudebeck, professor emeritus of political science, research coordinator CSD
Gloria Gallardo, associate professor of sociology, CEFO director
Mikael Höök, associate professor in Natural Resources and Sustainable Development
