Migration: The World in Motion

UPPSALA UNIVERSITY invites you to a whole-day event devoted to the topic of migration. Humans have been on the move since we left African continent thousands of years ago. Thirst for adventures, conflicts, trade, family ties, and many other reasons have set humans on a journey into the unknown. Our world is constantly on the move and today more than ever before. How have Muslims ended up in the Baltic countries? How does migration look like between Mexico and USA? Where and why does one move in China? How are the concepts of mobility, migration and security reflected in Arabic literature? How has immigration from Turkey affected language policies in Europe? What role does sport play in identity building within the diaspora of Southeast Asia? Come, listen and discuss with the experts from Uppsala University!

In addition, you will be able to try out a tasting menu of foods from different parts of the world, watch a movie 'Uppsala Queer' and learn paper marbling!

WHEN: Saturday, 18 November, 12:00–16:00

WHERE: Gustavianum, Akademigatan 3, Uppsala

During the day, you will have an opportunity to visit the Museum for free.
