

Fieldwork in Anthropology and Linguistics: Revisiting Research Practice

An International Workshop, Thursday 26 January 2023, 9-17, Centre for Integrated Research on Culture and Society (CIRCUS), Gamla observatoriet, Kyrkogårdsgatan 8A, Uppsala University

The Fieldwork in Anthropology and Linguistics – the FAL Network – seeks to bring together researchers for whom fieldwork is a fundamental component. It enables scholars to learn from experiences of fieldwork in a systematic way covering ethics, areal specialization, technology, and handling accessibility in times of the global pandemic. This workshop marks the end of the project that has been supported by the CIRCUS at Uppsala University. The workshop aims to advance reflections on research practice at the interface of anthropology and linguistics.
