

FILIP DE BOECK

SUTURING THE CITY

LIVING TOGETHER IN CONGO'S URBAN WORLDS

May 3 at 13.15-15.00, Hall IX, University Main Building, Public talk with Professor Filip De Boeck, KU Leuven, Belgium

Anthropologist Filip De Boeck will present Suturing the City: Living Together in Congo's Urban Worlds (London: Autograph ABP, 2016), a book that he published in collaboration with renowned photographer and artist Sammy Baloji.

Professor De Boeck's current theoretical interests include youth and the politics of culture, urban infrastructure, and the transformation of private and public space in the urban context in Africa. He has published extensively on these topics. He has also curated three international exhibitions and released one documentary film.

Dept of Cultural Anthropology & Ethnology, Forum For Africa Studies

More information: sverker.finnstrom@antro.uu.se

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET

