The Nelson Mandela Memorial Lecture

An Ethics of Care in the time of Nelson Mandela

Prof. Pumla Gobodo-Madikizela

Wednesday 30 Sept. 16-18

Ikke-salen, Thunbergsv. 3H

Nelson Mandela inspired a quest for a richer sense of being human among South Africans from different racial and political groups, broadening the horizons of what is possible in human relationships. The Lecture will reflect on the meaning of this legacy in the post-apartheid condition and its relevance in a global context.

Pumla Gobodo-Madikizela is Senior Research Professor at the University of the Free State, South Africa, and former Professor of Psychology at the University of Cape Town. She is the author of the critically acclaimed book, A Human Being Died that Night: A South African Story of Forgiveness. Prof. Gobodo-Madikizela is the 2015 Claude Ake Visiting Chair.
