

BEYOND NEW PUBLIC MANAGEMENT?

WEDNESDAY 7 SEPTEMBER 2016
16.15-18.00
IHRE-HALL,
CAMPUS ENGELSKA PARKEN,
THUNBERGSV. 3H

POSSIBILITIES, LIMITATIONS AND THE FUTURE
OF PUBLIC-PRIVATE PARTNERSHIPS
IN DEVELOPMENT INITIATIVES

In this public panel, prominent researchers, politicians and experts from Southern Africa-Nordic Centre (SANORD) countries will address strengths and limitations of public-private partnerships in development initiatives, with an eye to the future beyond the new public management paradigm.

PANELLISTS:

Her Excellency Ameenah Gurib-Fakim, President of the Republic of Mauritius

Prof. Al Mtenje, Pro Vice Chancellor, University of Malawi

Lena Ingelstam, Director of Partnerships and Innovations, Sida

Dr. Florencia Enghel, Postdoctoral Researcher, Stockholm University, Department of Media Studies

MODERATOR:

Dr. Caroline Wamala Larsson, Researcher, Programme Manager at Spider - Swedish Program for ICT in developing regions

* List of panellists updated 1 Sept 2016

For more information, visit:

<http://sanord.uwc.ac.za/>
www.afrikastudier.uu.se

SOUTHERN AFRICAN-NORDIC CENTRE
UPPSALA UNIVERSITY
UPPSALA FORUM FOR AFRICA STUDIES