<http://www.afrikastudier.uu.se/en/project/decolonizing-research-methodologies/>

The launching of the Research School Programme Decolonizing Research Methodologies aims to bring together participants from the six partner universities (UNB, Burkina Faso; ISH, Mali; SORRECE, Tanzania; SLU, Sweden; SU, Sweden; and UU, Sweden) for a fifteen days intense course on decolonization in practice and on fieldwork methodology. This first year joint activity is exploratory in the sense that PhD-students, postdocs, and faculty will engage in a training and learning process that aims to develop courses and curricula of the programme's coming field courses.
