

The 9th FOKO Conference

Female Genital Cutting The Global North & South

Date

26-28 October 2018
from Friday 2pm to Sunday 2pm

Venue

Åkersberg, Höör, south Sweden
The conference centre is in Höör (akersberg.se), close to a train station.
There is a one-hour direct train from Copenhagen Airport.
The secluded venue will offer great opportunities for formal and informal discussions.

Costs

According to current budget, participants will have no expenses for board and lodging.
This can be definitively confirmed in April, when we know how many will attend.

Keynote Speaker

Ellen Gruenbaum
Professor of Anthropology, Purdue University.
She is the author of numerous publications about FGC during four decades, among them The Female Circumcision Controversy (2001)

Participants

Nordic scholars (including PhD students) in the FGC research field

Papers and Abstracts

Notification about attendance: 30 April
Abstract due: 1 June
We plan to publish an edited book (after a peer review process) in 2019
based on papers and abstracts presented at the conference
